DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

The Department of English, MVR DEGREE COLLEGE Visakhapatnam, is one of the ever evolving departments in the College which started since the establishment of the College in 1992. The Department offers General English and Communication and Soft Skills for three semesters for students of all streams as prescribed by the university. The department flourished with the change in societal need reflected through the revised syllabus.

The General English Course aids to fashion the personality and creative mind and develop the English skills of the young learners and aspiring writers by studying texts – prose, poetry, short story and drama. The foundation course Communication and Soft Skills is a driving force that pushes the learners to become anchored, self-directed, independent, communicatively competent and skilled to face the competitive world.

Communication Skills and Soft Skills has been introduced for the first time in 2016 and the General English syllabus has been revised and reduced to three semesters under the CBCS pattern.

Vision

The Department of English Language seeks to develop creativity, self-confidence, communicative skills, and self-efficiency and employability skills in students for a better life.
